

Corser Sheldon & Gordon gains a new Partner – David Hinton

Greg Boyle, Tim McQuaid and Bruce Sargent are pleased to announce that David Hinton has joined the partnership at CSG in Maryborough and Hervey Bay and heads the firm's litigation and family law department.

David has been practicing law for 20 years, and was admitted as a solicitor of the Supreme Court of Queensland and High Court of Australia in 1991. He has extensive experience in all areas of litigation including civil, criminal and commercial matters as well as all aspects of family law and de facto disputes, commercial litigation including debt recovery and building industry disputes.

Having lived in Hervey Bay with his wife Helen since 1998 David now considers himself a "local". Outside the law David is very involved in the community, and is a member and Past President of the Rotary Club of Hervey Bay Sunrise. David is also an avid sports fan and regularly paddles a kayak, and is also very involved in the sporting activities of his 2 young children Jeremy and Piper.

"My family and I love Hervey Bay and consider it our home - after living here for more than 11 years I couldn't imagine living anywhere else. I am very excited about joining the partnership at CSG and I look forward to assisting our clients for a long time to come. In litigation a client only comes to me if there is a problem, and I believe my experience allows me to quickly and effectively deal with a client's problem to achieve the best possible outcome in a cost effective manner".
